

MEETING AGENDA

Time	Key Point
6:00 P.M.	Welcome Reception As parents arrive, they're greeted in the school auditorium with a warm welcome from staff and student volunteers. Background music and a slideshow of school events and student achievements play as everyone settles in.
6:15 P.M.	Introduction by the School Principal The school principal opens the evening with a brief introduction, outlining the night's agenda and the school's commitment to fostering a culture of appreciation among students, staff, and the wider school community.
6:25 P.M.	Skit Presentation by Students A group of students presents a light-hearted and informative skit that illustrates the new culture of appreciation initiative, showcasing examples of appreciation in school life and its positive impacts.
6:40 P.M.	Explanation of Culture Initiative The principal or a designated school coordinator gives a detailed presentation on the culture of appreciation initiative, highlighting the objectives, expected outcomes, and how parents can participate and support at home. The presentation concludes with a Q&A session, encouraging parents to ask questions and share their thoughts.
7:00 P.M.	Interactive Workshop: Expressing Appreciation Parents participate in an interactive workshop led by teachers, discussing practical ways to express appreciation to their children and help their children learn to express appreciation to others. May include role-playing scenarios, discussion of appreciation languages, and creating simple appreciation notes or crafts.
7:30 P.M.	Refreshments and Prizes The evening moves to the cafeteria where refreshments are served. This informal setting provides an opportunity for parents to mingle, discuss the evening's topics, and share their own ideas and experiences. During this time, a door prize drawing adds an element of fun, with prizes that encourage family activities or opportunities for parents to show appreciation in unique ways.
